A very bouncy March 2025

Hello all you March hares

Good news folks, we are fast approaching spring! The days are getting longer and at the end of this month we will be springing forward officially into Spring as the clocks go forward on Sunday 30th March. We will all lose an hour's sleep but the good news is the evenings will be lighter! Well-deserved after the long, and dare we say it, dull winter.

A fabulous February was had by all, we had some terrific entertainment, including one of our home favourites, Liam, our professional singer, who brought along one of his many chihuahua's with him, the debonair Albus! Oh we were charmed and as for Liam's singing, an absolute treat.

Gay boarded the minibus and drove a few of us off to Garsons Farm for a rather lovely morning out. Yes folks, you have guessed it, tea and cake was the order of the day as we sat back and relaxed.

We enjoyed the very talented Tony, the accordion player, as we all swayed and sang along to some truly wonderful music. Always a joy.

Talking of joy, Becky, our musical entertainer got us all up, dancing and laughing along with her as the hour flew by in a flash. She's a real tonic.

The knitting club resumed in full swing. If anybody has a birthday coming up be prepared for a knitted surprise!

And finally...we said a fond farewell to our Louise, who after many dedicated years as part of the domestic team with The Royal Cambridge, hung up her duster for one last time to enjoy some well-deserved retirement. She is looking forward to lots of dog walking and a new life in Lincolnshire with her sister and brother-in-law.

Our Louise with Rory and Robert our chairman

Thank you Louise and all the best for the future.

Home Improvements

Relax in Style - We are thrilled to announce that we have redeveloped part of the ground floor into a lovely new seating area. This is particularly useful for some of our residents on the ground floor. If anybody is visiting residents, please feel free to use this area. It looks out onto our beautiful south facing garden. We think you will all agree our designer has done a splendid job.

This gives us another place to relax in if we want a slightly quieter area.

Garden – Seton and his hardworking team at Garden Rescue have been busy creating magic in our garden. They are making excellent progress on putting in a fantastic path, so we can either walk or glide round on wheels. We cannot wait. In fact, as this newsletter goes to print, some early Spring sunshine is gracing the sky and a few of us went out onto the patio to enjoy the rays. Perfect!

Relatives & Friends Meeting

Calling all relatives and friends of the Home. As some of you may recall from our previous building at No. 82, we held, what proved to be, popular Relatives & Friends Meetings. We are very pleased to announce the first one ever to be held in No. 84 will be on Wednesday 2nd April from 6.30pm-7.30pm.

For those of you that haven't been before, this is a great opportunity to come along and enjoy some wine and nibbles with staff and other relatives and friends. Our chairman Robert Dowler and a couple of our Trustees will also be in attendance. This is a very informal gathering and if you would like to join us please advise either Sue or Melissa in the main office. An email will be circulated to all in due course, but in the meantime, please hold the date.

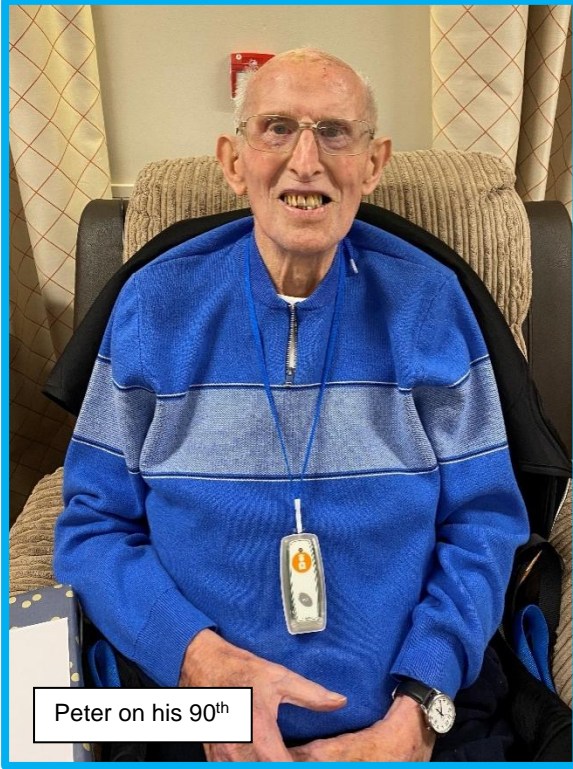

Don't forget to review us if you have not already done so! Also, please have a think about redoing a review if you have done one previously as they expire after a couple of years. It is a little like Trip Advisor for the care sector and the more reviews we receive go towards an unofficial overall rating score. It is a good platform to leave feedback - carehome.co.uk - reviews

From there click on "Submit a Review" and you will be able to review us. We also have prepaid review cards if you prefer not to use an online platform.

Thanks everyone – this helps us enormously.

6th March – Jill

8th March – Eileen R

Happy birthday to both and enjoy your special days.

Good friends Janet & Joyce

Director / Trustee Recruitment

The Chairman and our team of Directors and Trustees would very much like to recruit another person to support the team. The position is a voluntary one. The ideal person would need to have a professional background and we would be particularly interested in an area such as Legal, HR, Care or Nursing. If anyone is interested or indeed knows of someone who might, we would very much like to hear from you. Please contact Rory Belfield in the first instance.

March Arrives

by Catherine Pulsifer

In the realm where seasons weave their dance,
March arrives, bringing a hopeful chance.
Equinox whispers of celestial might,
Winter's grip fades, surrendering to light.

As the sun's rays caress the earthly floor,
Day and night harmonize like never before.
On this vernal equinox, nature aligns,
A tapestry of wonders, where magic intertwines.

In the Northern Hemisphere, spring awakes,
Awakening dormant life from slumber's embrace.
Budding blooms stretch toward the azure sky,
Embracing warmth with a joyful sigh.

And as we bid farewell to winter's cold,
Nature's canvas is painted with hues bold.
From gentle blossoms to vibrant leaves,
A symphony of colours, a joy that never leaves.
